

A man is sitting on a windowsill, looking out of a window. Outside the window, a woman's face is visible, looking directly at the camera. The scene is dimly lit, with a strong blue/teal light source, possibly from the window or a screen, creating a moody atmosphere. The woman's face is the central focus, with her hair wet and her expression serious. The man is in profile, looking out at her. SYNOPSIS

Stranded on Earth after the spacecraft lands on a lake island, Tiza Valzer is an alien forced to invade a human body. She fights her slave master, Commander Arkjo, a brutal species, and narrowly escapes. Later, she encounters a troubled transgender man, Evan Dougal, who's staying at his grandmother's cabin, and they instantly develop a mystical sconnection.

Tiza's human body decays as she struggles with the trauma of her capture. Evan promises to help her contact her home world. Meanwhile, Arkjo recovers in another part of the island and hunts Tiza.

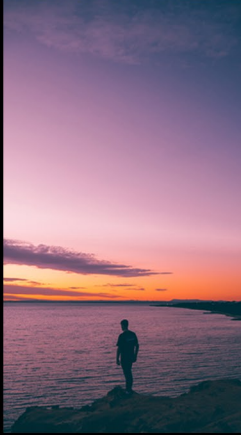

Evan and Tiza hike to the highest point on the island and send a signal using the prisoner cuff Arkjo made her wear. But they don't receive a response right away and decide to wait. On the way back to the cabin, they're surprised to run into the sheriff and his deputy. Dead bodies were found and killed in a way that Tiza recognizes - Arkjo.

Believing that Evan's grandmother is the next victim, they race back to the cabin, only to find Arkjo already there. He kills the deputy, injures the sheriff, and holds both Evan and Tiza hostage.

Arkjo forces Tiza to make the worst choice. He needs evidence that the mission isn't a complete failure so that the elders won't execute him, so he orders her to invade Evan's body. If she doesn't, Arkjo will kill all of them, including Evan's grandmother.

After Tiza reluctantly starts the invasion process, Evan suddenly comes up with a plan to save them all.
