A man with a beard and red goggles is smiling and holding a handgun. He is wearing a green t-shirt and a tactical vest. In the background, there is a fire burning in a fireplace.

Justice or Vengeance?

CHOOSE ONE

An aerial photograph of a funeral procession. A large crowd of people, mostly seen from above, is walking along a path. Many of them are holding open black umbrellas, creating a dense pattern of dark shapes. In the center of the procession, a large, dark, rectangular object, likely a coffin, is being carried. The overall tone is somber and respectful.
