

Global Echo

Genre: Drama, romance, Musical

Logline:

John, a young boy with an extraordinary singing talent, battles the psychological scars left by his abusive stepfather while uncovering dark secrets about his family's past. As a dangerous gang threatens his life, John must reconcile with his stepfather and find his true strength through the power of music.

Themes:

how trauma and abuse shape an individual but also how love and self-expression can bring healing.

John's talent becomes both his defense mechanism and his way of standing up for himself, using music to express his deepest emotions and fight against the odds.

The uncovering of hidden family truths drives the drama, forcing John to question his past, present, and future.

Through the trials, the idea of reconciliation and redemption plays heavily, particularly with John's complicated relationship with his stepfather.

Main Characters:

John (12-15 years old):

A talented singer with an angelic voice, John lost his father at a young age. His passion for singing is both his escape and his connection to his deceased father. Sensitive and deeply wounded by his stepfather's abuse, he is nevertheless determined to find the strength to confront his demons. John's journey is one of self-discovery, resilience, and ultimately, courage.

Kira (25-29) year's old

Kira beautiful woman and perfect Mother, shorty but charming with that golden Long hair and Hazel eyes.

Jason (Mid-30s):

John's cruel stepfather, the New husband of Kira, he is a serious person, never Smiling or having a sense of humor, always nervous and tough In dealings with his children especially John.

Steve (17):

he is Young Man Has 17 year's old athletic person, Long black hair and brown Eyes, funny, love his family precisely John.

Carlos (16):

a smart and funny kid, always joking around and never Take things serious.

Sana(14-16)

A beautiful girl, geek, the first in her class, always Having A, she the best friends of John beside Carlos.

The Gang (Various ages):

A shadowy group with ties to John's step father's past, they emerge as a dangerous force seeking retribution. Their motives are tied to an old debt or betrayal involving John's step father, which puts the entire family in grave danger.

The Movie is set in a mid-sized suburban town, with frequent shifts between domestic scenes in John's home, school, Music scenes are as school theatre.

Music Integration:

The songs performed by John that reflect the emotional journey he's on. These musical moments will act as both narrative tools and emotional breaks, offering the audience a deeper connection to John's internal struggles. The music will range from haunting ballads to empowering anthems.

Tone:

Global Echo blends heartfelt drama with moments of high tension, using music to highlight both the beauty and the pain of John's life. While the story tackles heavy themes such as abuse, trauma, and family secrets, the uplifting power of music offers a sense of hope and redemption.

Target Audience:

The movie is aimed at a young adult to adult demographic, particularly those interested in coming-of-age dramas, romance, and the healing power of art. Fans of musical dramas such as High School Musical or intense family thrillers like This Is Us will find Global Echo compelling.