06/17/2024

Play by the rules, The first season is a three episode show.

Synopsis:

Episode 1: Victoria is still in love with her ex Kate, who is now her best friend and CEO of the V&K company, a major business company they funded together. Kate is in love with her new girlfriend Sarah, even if they are dating for just a couple of months they decided to move in together. And then there's Audrey, Victoria's new assistant. One day, Victoria's sister calls, her mother is dead so Victoria, Kate and Audrey are headed to the funeral.

Episode 2: It's Kate's birthday. Kate hates her birthdays. But this time is different; she has Sarah by her side. It will be the chance for Victoria to meet Sarah for the first time, as Kate organized a family dinner all together. At the end of the night, after an open hearted conversation between Victoria and Kate's mother, Joey, Victoria will confess her true feelings to Kate.

Episode 3: Victoria's plan is to spend the weekend crying as Kate didn't say she still loves her. Luckily for Victoria, Audrey helps her friend in need and they spend the weekend together. Kate, instead, spends her weekend with Sarah at the spa. But has she made the right choice, is she really happy?

Genre:

Play by the rules is a romantic dramedy. I think some of the dialogues are very serious and touchy (i.e. Episode 1 Victoria facing her sister, episode 2 Joey talking to Victoria), while others are meant to be funny.

Target Audience: Anyone could watch the show, but since there are a few sex scenes and some strong language contests, I wouldn't recommend it to people under 14.

Production Details: I'm no expert in production, I have set the show in London, but since there are no specific details of places of London it can be set everywhere.

Unique Selling Points: Play by the rules is basically a female show, since the men of the show have just a marginal role. I took that decision because as a woman I like to write about women. I feel more connected to this world. The protagonists are openly gay, but anyone can watch it, since love has no labels or colours.

Visual and Stylistic Elements: I want things to be true and authentic
