

Trapped in the elevator

Logline

Trapped in an elevator with a mysterious woman who knows her darkest secrets, a woman must confront her traumatic past to survive.

Synopsis

Victoria Kensington, a successful woman with a dark past, finds herself stuck in an elevator with a stranger. This mysterious woman seems to know everything about Victoria, including the secret that has haunted her for years: the death of her beloved Audrey in Brighton in 2013.

As the tension rises and the elevator becomes a claustrophobic prison, the woman forces Victoria to face her demons. Through a perverse psychological game, the woman pushes her to reveal the truth about that fateful night, bringing Victoria to a breaking point. But who is this woman, really? And what does she want from Victoria?

Themes

- * Trauma and memory
- * Guilt and redemption
- * Manipulation and control
- * Truth and lies
- * Identity and self-deception

Target Audience

- * Fans of psychological thrillers
- * Lovers of stories with twists and suspense
- * People interested in themes related to memory, trauma, and healing

Potential

- * A gripping and claustrophobic psychological thriller
- * A story that explores the complexity of the human psyche
- * A project with strong potential for film or stage adaptation