

Title: Happy family

Genre: Psychological Thriller, Romantic Drama, Legal Drama

Logline: When her ex-wife dies under mysterious circumstances, a woman finds herself trapped in a web of lies and suspicion, as she tries to prove her innocence and protect her newfound love.

Synopsis:

Victoria Kensington has finally found happiness with Alex, her new partner. But the past comes back to haunt her when Sarah, her obsessed ex-wife, is found dead. Circumstantial evidence paints a damning picture: fingerprints, threatening messages, an apparent motive. Victoria is arrested, accused of murder.

As Victoria fights to prove her innocence, she must confront the secrets of her past and a relentless detective convinced of her guilt. Alex, determined not to abandon her, desperately seeks the truth.

But the truth is more complex than it seems. Sarah wasn't murdered, but died accidentally from anaphylactic shock. A tragic mistake that further complicates Victoria's situation.

Through intense interrogations, plot twists, and shocking revelations, Victoria and Alex must fight for their freedom and their love, while trying to uncover the truth behind Sarah's death.

Main Characters:

- Victoria Kensington:
 - A strong and independent woman, but scarred by her past.
 - Loves Alex deeply, but is tormented by guilt.
 - Determined to prove her innocence and protect her love.
- Alex:
 - Victoria's new partner, sweet and understanding.
 - Firmly believes in Victoria's innocence and supports her in every way.
 - Determined to uncover the truth and expose the culprit.
- Sarah Moore:
 - Victoria's ex-wife, obsessed with their past.
 - Manipulative and vindictive, but also fragile and insecure.
 - Her accidental death triggers a series of unexpected events.
- Detective Vallance:
 - A relentless and determined detective, convinced of Victoria's guilt.
 - Harbors a personal grudge against Victoria, driving her to investigate with particular zeal.
 - Ultimately proves to be a person who cares about the truth.

Settings:

- Victoria and Alex's home, a safe and cozy haven.
- Sarah's house, a place filled with painful memories.
- The police station, a cold and claustrophobic environment.
- The courtroom, the place where Victoria's fate is decided.

Themes:

- Obsession and jealousy.
- Forgiveness and second chances.
- The power of love and loyalty.
- The search for truth and justice.
- The consequences of our actions.

Tone:

- Psychological thriller with moments of tension and suspense.

- Romantic drama with scenes of intimacy and passion.
- Legal drama with intense interrogations and courtroom twists.

Series Structure:

- Each season focuses on a main mystery, with story arcs that develop throughout the episodes.
- Flashbacks gradually reveal the characters' past and their motivations.
- Plot twists and unexpected revelations keep the tension high.

Potential Future Developments:

- Explore Victoria and Alex's past, revealing new secrets and conflicts.
- Introduce new characters and new mysteries to solve.
- Deepen the relationship between Victoria and Alex, showing the challenges and joys of their life together.