

- Title: "89 Days"
- Logline: In a post-apocalyptic world ravaged by mysterious explosions, a survivor, Victoria, records a desperate message, revealing her traumatic past and her struggle to survive, while awaiting the arrival of a legendary rescue squad.
- Synopsis: "89 Days" is an intense and moving short film set in a dystopian future. Victoria, a survivor, tells her story through a video message, revealing the loss of her family, the horrors she has witnessed, and her hope of being saved. Her testimony is an emotional journey through grief, fear, and resilience, culminating in a tragic ending.
- Genre: Drama, post-apocalyptic.
- Target: Fans of intense dramas, survival stories, and dystopian settings.
 - Hope and despair.
 - The human condition in the face of tragedy.
- Visual Style:
 - Dark and desolate atmosphere.
 - Use of cold colors and strong contrasts.
 - Close-ups to emphasize Victoria's emotions.
 - Shaky shots to create a sense of urgency and precariousness.
- Additional Notes:
 - The short film is intended to be an intense and immersive emotional experience.
 - The goal is to create a memorable character and a believable post-apocalyptic world.
 - The ending is open to interpretation, leaving the viewer to reflect on Victoria's fate.